MR. O'CONNELL .- The London papers have teld us repeatedly, of late, that the physical energies of this venerable old man were rapidly and suddealy failing; and their report is confirmed by a London correspondent of the New York Observer, who describing a public meeting, says:-

noise was the entrance of an old man muffled up in a great coat and wearing a large brown wig, who appeared enfeebled and broken by age, and slowly made his way to the platform through the dense concourse, which divided to let him pass. It was Daniel O'Connel! The few hisses, which were heard here and there, when the cheering partially subsided, for ao instant, were the signal for new and if possible still louder and more vehement outbursts, which lasted till the tottering old man reached the platform, after bowing respectfully, with his hand on his heart, he sat down.

"As soon as the cheering had sufficiently subsided, he commenced speaking. The stilness was perfect. What a change since I lasl saw and heard him in Exeter Hall! His form, then erect, now bent together; his voice, whose lively, rich and varied tones us ed to fill every corner of that hall, now monotonous and grave, and withal so low that though seated on the platform I was unable to catch more than half that he said; his action, formerly full of energy, elasticity and grace-gone. This great change has come over him suddenly and rapidly. His day is gone by. Ireland must seek another cham-

Messrs. Editors .- At length the mobotony of camp life is broken. We have received orders to strike tents, preparatory to moving forward towards Camargo. All is life and activity in camp to-day. We are waiting for the steamboat Big Hatchee, which we momentarily expect to arrive, when we will empark on board of her and proceed fifteen miles above here, where comes up, when we will be marched commanded by Capt. Miles, is embark- prices ing for the same destination. The steamboats Aid, Big Hatchee, and Troy, are here; and the steamboats Cincinnati, Eenterprise, Cora, and J. E. Roberts, are in the river, coming up-this begins to look like moving, and I have now no doubt but what we will very soon be in Camargo.

We spent the "glorious 4th" most gloriously. The Brigade (Cols. Walton's and Marks' Regiments) were paraded and reviewed by Generals Taylor Court of said county, been appointed and Smith. Gen. The Brandreth Pills are made entirely of Vegetable Extracts, known by long experience to be perfectly innocent, and yet of more power as a purgative, or cleanser of the alimentary canal, than any other medicine. Their effect on the system is so easy, that it is a remarkable fact that the same dose may be given to an infant or adult, without the possibility of doing any injury-but on the contrary good. Therefore in costiveness, either habitual or otherwise, and in Billiovs Fevers, and all bilious affections they are of the greatest possible benefit.

1846. James E. Evans,

John Evans, et al N this case it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that Lorenzo D. Evans, John Estis and Penolppe Estis are non residents of the State of Mississippi .- It is therefore ordered by the court that unless they appear at the July Term of this court and answer the allegations in the petition in the above case, the same shall be taken as confessed against them. Witness the Hon. John T. M. Burbridge Judge of said court at the court house of said county the 20th day of April A. D. 1846, and the seal of said affixed. J. C, ARMSTRONG, Cl'k.

ABSTRACT OF THE BILL.

The petition charges that John Evans died in Nov. 1842, leaving four children besides petitioner; that dec'd. in 18 an instrument purporting to be his last will and testament was admitted to probate on the evidence of one witness, that dec'd. left a large estate consisting of real and personal property, amounting to between seven & eight thousand dollars, that petitioner had never received but one negro girl from dec'd. That said instrumen: is fraudulent & not the will of the dec'd. and that dec'd. was incapable at the time of making a will, that he was not of sound and disposing mind at the time, nor for a long time previous, that defendant sought the advantage which infirmity old age and insanity had given them, obtained his signature to an instrument, the contents of which he was ignorant, and that dei'ts by stratagem attempt to set up the same as his will and thereby attempt to secure to themselves the property to the exclusive of petitioner, that petitioner had delayed proceeding thus long on account of promises by defendant that they would divide with petitioner. Petitioner prayes that defendant be compelled to appear at-Term of said court and answer fully the allegations in said petition and that said instrument and probate be set a side and that the property decend as at law as in cases of intestates, and a general prayer for relief.
